WAVES News

Media Watch - Week to 12/9/2015

- 7 Sept. The Australian: Q&A: refugee crisis, voluntary euthanasia dominate discussion. You can watch the full Q&A episode here. However, DWDnsw has made available a transcript of the last two questions. Ian Wood (Christians Supporting Choice for Voluntary Euthanasia) sent this letter to Mike Baird addressing his comments on Q&A.
- 10 Sep. SkyNews: California to join euthanasia states. The Bill was approved by the state senate 43 votes to 34.
- 11 Sep. SBS: The hardest story I've ever told. "A woman I have come to know and like has invited me to share and document the final moments of her life", writes Brett Mason about his story on euthanasia in Belgium to be screened Tuesday 9.30pm SBS TV Dateline.
- 12 Sep. Mamamia: Brittany Maynard's legacy will allow euthanasia in California.
- 12 Sep. ABC.net.au: British MPs reject controversial right to die bill due to fierce opposition
- 12 Sept. SBS TV World News: UK rejects assisted dying bill.
- 12 Sept. WAtoday: Aided suicide approved by California legislature.

Also of Interest:
- 6 Sept. Adele Horin blog: Why are older men suiciding?
- 7 Sept. The Conversation: Voluntary euthanasia: Beware of the godly!
- 8 Sept. The Star: A struggle to the end. The story of Inverloch man, Ray Godbold who requested and was publicly supplied a bottle of Nembutal by Rodney Syme but was ultimately unable to use it. The Godbold family has put in a submission to the current Victorian Parliamentary Inquiry into End of Life Decisions.
- Youtube: The right to die. Watch Helen Joyce (Int. Editor The Economist) at the Festival of Dangerous Ideas. (Thanks to Judith Daley DWDnsw for this)

To watch:
- Youtube: The right to die. Watch Helen Joyce (Int. Editor The Economist) at the Festival of Dangerous Ideas.
- A documentary about Euthanasia in Belgium...The hardest story I've ever told... to be screened Tuesday, 15 Sept, 9.30pm SBS TV Dateline